

MUSE SUMMER
2014

MOBILE MUSEUM OF ART

MUSE Teachers

Lillian McKinney is a native of the Mobile Bay area. A multi-disciplinary artist whose scope continues to unfold, Lillian's work includes performance and installation art, music, sculpture and visual media. Her performance pieces have been featured in a variety of gallery and unorthodox performance settings.

She is teaching 3D Collage and DIY Symbolism

Yolanda Jones, also known as Jonesy, has been involved in dance since the age of 10. Yolanda began teaching beginner Tap dance and Hip-Hop dance under Lynn Brown at Prima Dance Studios at the age of 16. She also taught modern hip-hop and Tap Dance at Midtown Dance Studios and Mobile Contemporary Dance Studios.

She is teaching Dancersize

Wayne McNeil graduated from the University of West Florida with a BFA in Studio Art and Art History. He has worked in the arts for the past 15 years as an artist, curator, educator, and gallery owner.

He is teaching Book Binding and How To Look

Chris Noerr grew up in Mobile, AL. He has a BFA in Illustration from the SCAD and has been making things and teaching for 4 years. His favorite things include: drawing, music that hipsters like, watercolor, needle felting, science-fiction television shows, precision-brewing coffee, riding bikes, and cooking impressive-sounding meals.

He is teaching Drawing Fictional Figures and Felting Your Fears

Colleen Comer is originally from Mobile, Alabama and received her BFA from Auburn University. She has lived and shown her work across the South East, New York and in Paris, France. Her work has been commissioned for personal and corporate collections including the Contemporary Carolina Collection; a major retrospective of living South Carolina artists.

She is teaching Sketch & Stroll

Nadine Dalati is interested in guiding others to find balance in this stressful world by sharing practices that stimulate the parasympathetic nervous system, the relaxation response in which the body can heal and restore itself!

She is teaching How To Meditate

Alfred Ward grew up in Mobile, AL. He had his first poem published at the age of seven. He's the author of one book of poetry "Paradox Lost" in 2004. Two chapbooks, The Poem or the Pistol 2005, and The Return of the King 2008. He believes that poetry is the most basic and fundamental aspect of all creative writing and directly influences all other forms of writing.

He is teaching The Poetry Workshop

Jillian Crochet is an artist from Baldwin County, Alabama. She does ceramic and alternative media sculpture and installation. Jillian works with crochet on a large scale, to create interactive playful environments.

She is teaching Crochet We Go and Alternative Media Sculpture 101

Will Fawcett has been working with Hummingbird Ideas in Mobile, AL since 2009, where he builds Wordpress-based websites for local and regional businesses. He has also worked part-time with the Crescent Theater since it opening in 2008, where he handles their online presence, and in 2012 managed their record-setting kickstarter campaign to convert from 35mm to digital.

He is teaching How to Wordpress